

Interview with Mrs. Greenwood

By Eveliina, Rylee, and Max from 4K

Mrs. Greenwood first taught toddlers in California and then was a special education teacher. Mrs. Greenwood got her bachelor's degree from Eisenhower College in upstate New York. She did some graduate work at San Jose State in California. She finished her master's degree at U.N.H. Mrs. Greenwood has worked here for 28 years and has loved it.

What Mrs. Greenwood wants for Children

She has tried to make learning fun for everyone. She has welcomed everyone to her class and wanted them to be engaged and to have fun and ask lots and lots of questions, also to take risks. Her favorite part of KES is having fun with children.

Our Opinion

Our opinion is that Mrs. Greenwood has helped our school a lot. Mrs. Greenwood has helped a lot of kids learn in kindergarten. She is a part of our community. She has made the kids be a part of this school because she has made them have fun and learn. Mrs. Greenwood wants kids to feel like they are having fun but they are still learning. She loves her kids so so so much.
