

Interviewing Ms.Prince

By Ella, Madison, and Eveliina

Ms.Prince's real name is Rebekah Prince. She got her undergraduate degree at Franklin Pierce University, and her master's degree at New England College. Ms.Prince is now teaching fifth grade at Kensington Elementary School. She has been working here for 8 years and she has loved it. She has taught fifth grade here for four years. Before that she was our Stem teacher for four years.

Ms.Prince has also taught in Henniker and Sutton. She was teaching middle school in Henniker, and high school in Hopkinton and Weare. She taught at Lincoln St. School as an aide and a librarian. Ms.Prince is an author of a book called The Worry Tree.

Her teaching style is for people to have fun learning and she wants them to work together and cooperate with each other in class. Her favorite part of teaching is that she wants to know all of the students and be comfortable in her own class. Ms.Prince always tries to make everything she teaches fun to learn. She encourages her students to learn more.

She is going to go to another school in Windham that is a much bigger school than here. Ms.Prince will be one of the ten 4th grade teachers in that school.

Our Opinion

Our opinion is that Ms.Prince is a really kind teacher. We love her being a part of this school. Everyone will remember her for her kindness. She is a wonderful teacher and we all wish we had her.
WE LOVE MS.PRINCE!
